ABOUT

Alain born in France and grew up in Paris from a French mother and an Egyptian father. He has lived between Paris and Sicily which is the meeting point between his ancestors cultures. This gave him a great rise of inspiration.

Since October 2019 he moved to Rome (Italy) to follow an intensive Cinematographer Course specializing in D.I.T (Digital Imaging Technician). He comes from martial arts, artistic gymnastic, comic books drawing and his first profession for 15 years have been dancing. He worked as a dancer for companies in France, Germany and Italy.

As a filmmaker he worked for several companies for promotional contents. He has been directing his own work together with the « QBR Collective » basing it on combining languages of dance with grammar of cinema. The work was lead by linking shots with architecture, dance with all kind of intentional movements, editing with rhythm, body with environment, dance and cinema through cinematographic references.

WE NO LONGER WAIT FOR THE BARBARIANS

Allegory on the myth of the original sin of Adam and Eve transposed to the contemporary world which title is in contradiction with the one of Costantin Cavafy (1863-1933) « While waiting for the barbarians » because the barbarians are already inside us. Even naked, as the very first morning of the world with free body and soul, we wouldn't give up the promethean dreams.
